NIO/AF
NIO/NESA
NIO/EAP

25X1

SUBJECT : DCI Worldwide Congressional Briefing

1. The DCI has given us further guidance on this briefing. Forget the earlier overview prepared on 16 December and start over. I need, by COB Monday, 18 December, without fail one or two paragraphs -- take this literally -- on each of the following situations (responsibilities as indicated):

- The strategic equation as we now see it (Gershwin)
- The threat to the strategic equation from ABM and the military use of space (Gershwin)
- The Warsaw Pact threat  25X1
- Soviet power projection with particular focus on Iran  with Waterman) 25X1
- Soviet military sales to and relationships with Third World countries  25X1
- Insurgency and subversion (Ford)
- Instability and destabilization (Ford)

25X1

SECRET

SECRET

- Central America (Menges)
- Africa and the vulnerability of nations there (Cowan)
- Terrorism [ ] 25X1
- Middle East and Gulf (Waterman)
- Afghanistan (Waterman)
- Southeast Asia and China (Gries)
- The technological race (Heymann)
- Propaganda (Ford)
- Economic competition in the Free World (Ernst)
- Soviet economic and political situation [ ] 25X1

The order of topics suggests an emphasis on the Soviet role for most topics. I have attached a paragraph from the DCI's briefing of PFIAB to give you an idea of what is wanted.

2. In addition, Messrs. Gershwin, [ ] Menges, Cowan, Waterman, and Gries will attend with the DCI. Each will be prepared to give a 10 minute presentation (Gershwin has 15) on each assigned topic if called on, and to answer questions in any case. (The topics assigned to Messrs. Ford [ ] Heymann and Ernst will be handled by the DCI.) These presentations should be ready by COB Wednesday, 20 January. There may be a rehearsal with the DCI. 25X1

3. Classification will be "Top Secret [ ]" That is, anything goes on substance, but sources and methods will not be discussed except in the most general terms. 25X1

4. The DCI will probably not use graphics, but each of you should have appropriate vugraphs prepared for your contingency presentations. These should also be available by 20 January. [ ] will coordinate production of all graphics. Notify him of your plans ASAP. 25X1
